

Errol's Adventures

Interview Errol:

Write questions that you would ask Errol if you were a journalist interviewing him for a magazine article on war heroes. Remember the 5 Ws - who, what, where, when, why. (and how.)

Have a classmate create the answers to these questions. Answers that they think Errol might say.

Pass the questions and answers back to the teacher. The teacher will put everyone's questions and answers into separate piles. She will then draw from each pile and ask the class to either guess the question or answer the question in a way that Errol might.
